

Rachel's Challenge

"I HAVE THIS THEORY THAT IF ONE PERSON CAN GO OUT OF THEIR WAY TO SHOW COMPASSION, THEN IT WILL START A CHAIN REACTION OF THE SAME. PEOPLE WILL NEVER KNOW HOW FAR A LITTLE KINDNESS CAN GO."

-Rachel Scott

The Rachel's Challenge program provides a sustainable framework for positive climate and culture in our schools. When fully implemented, schools achieve significant gains in community engagement, faculty/student relationships, leadership potential, and school climate; along with reductions in bullying, alcohol, tobacco and other drug use.

History of the Program—Rachel Scott, a high school student, was the first person killed in the Columbine High School Shooting on April 20, 1999. After her death, many students that Rachel reached out to shared stories with the Scott family about the profound impact her simple acts of kindness had on their lives. They soon realized the transformative effect of Rachel's story and started the non-profit organization that is Rachel's Challenge.
